The Humble ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual & Temporal AND COMMONS In Parliament Assembled.

Die Mercurii, 20° Maii, 1702.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament Assembled, Beg Leave to Represent to Your Majesty, as our Opinion, That nothing will more Contribute to the Effectual Carrying on the Just and Necessary War, wherein You are Engaged, to the Interrupting the Trade of Your Enemies, to the Depriving them of Intelligence, and Reducing them to the greatest Straights, than an entire Prohibition of all Correspondence with France and Spain, on the part of the Allies. And we do therefore humbly Adviſe Your Majeſty, That You would be Pleaſed, ſo ſoon as may be, to Engage the Emperor, the States General, and Your other Allies, to joyn with Your Majeſty in Prohibiting, in the ſtricteſt manner, and under the ſevereſt Penalties, all Intercourſe, by Letters or otherwiſe, between the Subjects of Your Majeſty, and Your Allies, and the Subjects of France and Spain. And that Your Majeſty will Graciouſly Pleaſe to take ſuch Methods, in Concert with the States General of the United Provinces, as may moſt effectually Secure the Trade of Your Majeſties Subjects, and Your Allies, from the French Privateers.

Her MAJESTIES Moſt Gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament, Preſented to Her Majeſty Yeſterday.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Shall Propoſe to the Allies, to Joyn with Me in Prohibiting all Intercourſe and Correſpondence with France and Spain, according to Your Deſires.

And I am too much Concern'd for the Publick Welfare, to Omit any Neceſſary Precautions for the Protection of Our Trade

FINIS.
